These percentages are the minimum marks which a candidate is required to secure in each paper/component and aggregate in the Written Test and in aggregate in the Personal Interview.

[In case of paper I (multiple choice objective type paper), there are 50 questions of 01 mark each in three parts (General Knowledge & Current Affairs; General English and General Hindi/General regional language concerned). As a result, the candidate who requires 45% marks to qualify can secure either 22 marks or 23 marks in part and not 22.5 marks as per the minimum prescribed percentage of marks. The marks secured by the candidates are not rounded off by Recruitment Branch and as per the laid down criteria implemented in such a manner as to ensure that the same is not harsh to any category of candidates, the Paper II of those candidates belonging to OBC category will also be evaluated who secure 22 marks out of 50 in one part of the Paper I subject to securing 23 marks each in other two parts of Paper I (Multiple choice objective type paper). Otherwise, such candidate may be required to secure total 69 marks (23 marks in each of the three parts) to qualify the Paper I. A candidate belonging to OBC category securing 22 marks each in any two parts of paper I will not be declared as qualified.]

In Oration Test and Simultaneous Interpretation Test, all candidates will be required to secure minimum 50% marks in each component/parameter.

However, the above cut-off percentages may be raised in individual component/paper/aggregate to arrive at reasonable vacancy: candidate ratio.

- VII. NUMBER OF VACANCIES: The number of vacancies specified in respect of the post is subject to change.
- VIII. RIGHT TO CANCEL THE PROGRAMME OF RECRUITMENT: Mere submission of application online by the applicants shall not give them the right to be called for Selection Process.
