MAHENDERGARH : Pandit Deendayal Upadhyaya Central Library of Central University of Haryana (CUH), Mahendergarh conducted the induction program of "Research and Publication Ethics" on 6th October, 2023. The purpose of the induction programme was to introduce the course curriculum and importance of pursuing the course. More than 150 PhD scholars participated from various Departments of the University who are pursuing the Course. Prof. Tankeshwar Kumar, Vice Chancellor of Central University of Haryana appreciated the Library team for organising the Course for various Departments and also organising orientation programme. The research ethics are important to signify the credibility of a researcher, trust and respect among the research community. In 2019-20, UGC mandated all higher education institutes to organise a two-credit "Research and Publication Ethics" course as part of PhD Course Work. This course covers all the basic concepts related to research ethics, metrics, scientific conduct, publication misconduct, avoidance of plagiarism, research tools, etc. The course intends to inculcate ethical research and publishing practices. At Central University of Haryana, the Central Library started conducting the Course centrally for PhD students of all Departments and has successfully completed three batches. The University Librarian and Coordinator of the Course, Dr. Santosh C. H. thanked the Vice Chancellor Prof. Tankeshwar Kumar for his support and encouragement for organising the Course for PhD students of 2023-24 batch. In the induction programme, he shared all necessary details and instructions related to the Course. Dr. Rajeev Vashistha, Deputy Librarian informed the students about the library and its resources. Dr. Vinod Kumar Singh, Assistant Librarian, informed about the plagiarism services being provided by the Library whereas Mr. Naresh Kumar, Assistant Librarian introduced various e-resources. Dr. Vinita Malik, Information Scientist, oriented the students about the ICT related services and also anchored the program. The students cleared their doubts and the feedback was overwhelming.
